WHITE FUND
8 P. M.

WINTER GARDEN
October 29, 1925

Tony Sarg's Marionettes

Present
(By Arrangement with The Stevenson Estate)

TREASURE ISLAND

By
Robert Louis Stevenson

A Puppet Melodrama in Eight Scenes
Play by Jules Eckert Goodman
By Arrangement with Charles Hopkins
Punch and Judy Theatre, New York
Produced Under the Personal Direction of Tony Sarg
Assistant Director—Knowles Entriken

Characters in Order of Appearance:

Billy Bones.An old pirate who has sailed with Flint, the Buccaneer
An Old Rustic, A Man, Another Man } Guests at the Ben Bow Inn
Mrs. Hawkins.....The Landlady
Dr. Livesey.....The Village Doctor and Magistrate
Jim Hawkins.....Mrs. Hawkins' Son
Black Dog.....A Pirate
Pew.....A Blind Pirate
Hands, Merry, Morgan, Dick.....All Pirates
Squire Trelawney.....A Country Gentleman
Captain Smollet.....Captain of the Hispaniola
John Silver.....A Pirate, also the Ship's Cook, with his Parrot Captain Flint
Ben Gunn.....A Marooned Sailor
His Goat and only companion.
Sailors, Villagers, Etc.

SCENE 1—Interior of the "Admiral Ben Bow Inn."
2—The Dock at Bristol.
3—On Board the Hispaniola, at anchor.
4—The Woods, Treasure Island.
5—The Stockade, Treasure Island.
6—The Hispaniola Adrift.
7—Skeleton Island.
8—A Cave.

The People Who Talk and Pull the Strings:

Jim Hawkins.....Helen Lyvers
Mrs. Hawkins and Flower Girl.....Sylvia Thorne
Dr. Livesey, Black Dog, and Captain Smollet....Elwood Fayfield
Pew, Hands, Squire and Dick.....David Belinfant
Billy Bones, John Silver and Ben Gunn.....Charles Searle
Music and Effects.....Ellouise Townshend
Properties.....Llewellyn Thorne
Wardrobe Mistress.....Madeleine Brown
Manager for Mr. Sarg.....Charles E. Searle
Puppets and Properties Executed by Charles E. Searle.